Coloradoans Help Raise $2.3 Million for Local Non-Profits through Year-Long Efforts at Panera Bread

Colorado bakery-cafes support charitable giving throughout the year

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 6, 2011 – In a 2010 report by the Colorado Association of Funders, the volume of Colorado non-profits seeking funds has dramatically increased due to the economic decline. Panera Bread bakery-cafes are proud to continue to support the communities they serve in Colorado and give thanks to their customers this year for helping to raise $2.3 million to benefit local non-profit organizations.

Each year, Colorado Panera Bread bakery-cafes partner with local food banks, including the Food Bank of the Rockies, Care and Share Food Bank in Colorado Springs and Community Food Share in Boulder County, through the Operation Dough Nation program. Through this program, customers make cash donations at the register to support the fight against hunger. Other local non-profits, including Porter Hospice, St. Anthony Hospice, Fetal Hope Foundaton and Rocky Mountain Cancer Centers Foundation, received additional financial support from Panera Bread through Panera’s Soup for the Soul, Bagels Benefiting Babies and Pink Ribbon Bagel fundraisers, held in February, May and October, respectively.

“Panera Bread is committed to serving Colorado and we’re proud to give back to local organizations that support our customers and also create a positive impact on the community,” said Craig Flom, regional operating partner of Colorado Panera Bread bakery-cafes. “We are thankful for our customers’ commitment and we will continue to set a high standard in corporate giving in 2011.”
